What is this product?

Type

Mutual fund

Term

This fund has no maturity date

Objectives

The fund's objective is to achieve the highest possible return, relative to the risk taken by the fund.

The fund invests in shares, and holds a global investment mandate. Important selection criteria for the fund's investments are companies with solid balance sheets, good historical return on equity and reasonable pricing. The portfolio is diversified across industries, geography and company size. The fund is actively managed. This means that the investment decisions are taken on the basis of internal analyses. The investment philosophy can be characterized as long-term and none transaction oriented. We follow sound and well-run companies with a long-term potential and usually invest in 20-30 of them.

The fund's benchmark is the MSCI Daily Total Return Net World USD Index, measured in NOK. The benchmark is a total return index, which is a dividendadjusted world index. The fund will not try to replicate the index and will freely select the securities that it will invest in.

The fund may use derivatives to control risks and to manage the fund more efficiently. The use of derivatives will not increase the fund risk.

Subscription and redemption of units may take place each Norwegian banking day, with the exception of 31.12 and on days when local markets are closed.

The Sub-Fund may be appropriate for investors who: have an investment horizon of at least 5 years, and are willing to take on the increased risk associated with the investment. Investment in this fund does not require any knowledge or experience in the financial markets

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets. We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level. The fund is exposed to the following materially relevant risks that are not included in the summary risk indicator: Liquidity risk, counterparty risk, and operational risk. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted. The unfavorable, moderate, and favorable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

What happens if Pareto Asset Management AS is unable to pay out?

The Management Company is responsible for administration and management of the sub-fund, and does not typically hold assets of the sub-fund (assets that can be held by a depositary are, in line with applicable regulations, held with a depositary in its custody network). The Management Company, as the manufacturer of this product has no obligation to pay out since the product design does not contemplate any such payment being made. However, investors may suffer loss if the sub-fund or the depositary is unable to pay out. There is no compensation or guarantee scheme in place which may offset, all or any, of this loss.

What are the costs?

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding period we have assumed the product performs as shown in the moderate
- 10,000 NOK is invested

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the product to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.

	If you exit after 1 year	If you exit after 5 years
Total costs	173 NOK	1129 NOK
Annual cost impact (*)	1.7%	1.7% each year

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 11.6% before costs and 9.9% after costs.

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment. If the product is included as part of another product, e.g. unit-linked insurance, there may be other costs for that product.
